

DAVIS LOSES MATCH

Johnston Wins Leg on Tri-State Tennis Bowl.

TAKES 3 OUT OF 4 SETS

Miss Guthrie of Pittsburgh Beats Miss Davis of St. Paul for Woman's Championship.

CINCINNATI, September 16.—William M. Johnston of San Francisco, former national tennis champion, today won a leg on the Tri-State tennis bowl, emblematic of being a Tri-State champion, by defeating Willis E. Davis of San Francisco in the finals by scores of 6-2, 5-7, 6-0 here today.

His victory was mainly due to his steadiness and his ability to play at the top of his game at critical moments. Davis' play was spectacular in the extreme and on numerous occasions his terrific service as well as his back-hand volleying appeared to baffle Johnston. It was at these stages, however, that Johnston's superior and accurate placing, his drives hitting within two or three inches of the side lines almost invariably, would put an end to Davis' spurs.

Double faults by Davis likewise served as a great help to the former champion, while his outs were decidedly more numerous.

In the first set Johnston won rather handily, although four of the nine games went to deuce. In the second set, after winning the first two games, both of which had gone to deuce, he ran up the score to five-love before Davis rallied with one of his spectacular sports and managed to annex two games before Johnston won out on his own service.

The third set was by far the most sensational of the match. It required twelve games to decide the set, Davis finally winning. It was in this set that Davis displayed remarkable skill with a back-hand stroke from the back court, while his nets and outs were not as frequent as in the first two sets. After this set, however, the former champion appeared to solve his opponent's game, for he won the final set by a love score and captured the match.

The points by games follow:

FIRST SET.
Johnston	4	4	6
Davis	2	2	5
SECOND SET.
Johnston	6	4	4
Davis	4	2	2
THIRD SET.
Johnston	4	2	4
Davis	2	2	4
FOURTH SET.
Johnston	4	5	4
Davis	1	2	0

RECAPITULATION.

First set	Second set	Third set	Fourth set	Total
Johnston	11	15	12	38
Davis	7	11	8	26

Miss Martha Guthrie of Pittsburgh captured the women's championship today from Margaret Davis of St. Paul. The match went the full three sets, Miss Guthrie winning the first rather easily, but losing the second, in the third set she displayed the skill she showed in the opening set and won through her ability to outpace the St. Paul woman. The scores were 6-1, 3-6, 6-0.

William M. Johnston and Clarence Griffin played against Willis E. Davis and Dean Mathey for the championship in men's doubles, but the match was called on account of darkness during play in the fifth set. All of the sets were exciting, Johnston and Griffin winning the first, 5-6, and the third, 6-2, while Davis and Mathey won the second and fourth sets both by the scores of 7-5. When the match was called in the fifth set two score stood 2-1 in favor of Davis and Mathey. The match will be played off later.
